

Celebrate Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret & Simchat Torah at Tikvat Israel!

... On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the Festival of Sukkot, seven days for Adonai. – Leviticus 23:34
 The Festival of Sukkot begins on Tishrei 15, the fifth day after Yom Kippur, which this year falls on the evening of Wednesday, October 4. It is a dramatic transition, from the most solemn holiday in our year to one of the most joyous; Sukkot is commonly referred to in Jewish prayer and literature as Z'man Simchateinu, the Season of our Rejoicing. Please join us as we celebrate the chagim – the first two days of Sukkot October 4-6 and Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah on October 11-12 and October 12-13.
