

It began as a lesson about prejudice...
What happened next was a MIRACLE.

Tikvat Israel Congregation &
Beth Joshua Congregation of Aspen Hill

invite you on an inspirational trip:

April 23-24, 2017

Yom HaShoah in Whitwell, TN

Site of the film documentary, Paperclips.

Bear witness to this unique Holocaust memorial in the South.
Meet the individuals behind its creation and implementation.
Dialogue in rural America on pressing issues of today.

Join Rabbis Ben Shull and Uri Topolosky
on an interdenominational synagogue mission commemorating Yom HaShoah.

Find out more online at:
www.BethJoshua.org
www.TikvatIsrael.org

Participants will be expected to arrange their own round trip travel down to Atlanta, and overnight stay in Atlanta, although a group hotel rate may be arranged. A participation fee will be announced to cover shared costs of food and bus transportation.

Steering Committee (In-Formation): Melanie Grishman, Miki Moskowitz, Jim Perlmutter.

