WORDS FOR AL SH'LOSHAH D'VARIM
על שלושה דברים

Al sh'loshah d'varim (x3)
haolam omeid

על שלשה דברים (x3)
העולם עומד:

Al hatorah, v'al ha'avodah, v'al g'milut chasadim (x2)

על התורה, ועל העבודה ועל גמילות
חסדים. (x2)

Translation:

Upon three things the world stands:

On Torah, on service (prayer), and on loving kindness.

RESPONSIVE READING:

May the doors of this synagogue be wide enough to receive all who hunger for love, all who are lonely for fellowship.

May it welcome all who have cares to unburden, thanks to express, hopes to nurture.

May the doors of this synagogue be narrow enough to shut out pettiness and pride, envy and enmity.

May its threshold be no stumbling block to young or straying feet.

May it be too high to admit complacency, selfishness and harshness.

May this synagogue be, for all who enter, the doorway to a richer and more meaningful life.

HOLY PLACE
by Debbie Friedman

These are the gifts that we bring that we may build a holy place.
This is the spirit that we bring
that we may build a holy place.
We will bring all the goodness
that comes from our hearts
And the spirit of God will dwell within.....

These are the colors of our dreams
we bring to make a holy place.
This is the weaving of our lives
we bring to make a holy place.
We will bring all the goodness
that comes from our hearts
And the spirit of love will dwell
within.....

These are the prayers that we bring that we may make a holy place.
These are the visions that we seek that we may build this holy place.
Let our promise forever be strong,
let our souls rise together in song,
that the spirit of God
and the spirit of love, Shechinah, will dwell within.
